Elephant Care

This Elephant Camp does not do elephant shows or riding

Escape the daily grind and get the elephant out of the office into nature for a corporate outing! It's time to trade the monotony of meetings for the magic of mother nature. Join us for a team-building, stress relief, and unforgettable moments with friendly elephants.

Our carefully curated program combines corporate camaraderie with the enchantment of the animal kingdom. Not only will you be creating lasting memories, but you'll also be contributing to the conservation of these incredible creatures. Your participation directly supports initiatives dedicated to ensuring a bright future for elephants.

"Love will draw an elephant through a key-hole."

Samuel Richardson

The Objectives

Provide an outlet to show love to elephants in a two-hour immersive experience focused on feeding, hugging, and bathing elephants in their natural habitat. Through hands-on activities, participants learn about elephant care, and conservation efforts. Foster a deeper connection between participants and elephants while promoting awareness and respect for these majestic creatures.

Completion

- Meet your team on arrival.
- Receive safety instructions on how to behave when around habitat elephants.
- Learn about the herbs used in the elephant's medication, and also how to make tamarind balls for feed.
- Feed the elephants.
- Bathe the elephants the stream.
- From interactive feeding sessions to playful encounters, watch as your team bonds over shared experiences while leaving office stress behind.
